

Mystic Creek Golf Course

Once the winter weather breaks, a round of golf at one of Michigan's most scenic golf courses is less than an hour's drive for Dearborn-area residents.

Mystic Creek, a 27-hole championship course on the grounds of Camp Dearborn in Milford, is owned by the City of Dearborn and managed by the city's Parks & Recreation Department.

Mystic Creek features three nine-hole championship courses:

MYSTIC CREEK FEATURES THREE NINE-HOLE CHAMPIONSHIP COURSES:

The Lakes meanders around five lakes and features water on eight of its nine holes.

The Meadows is characterized by twisting and turning fairways and a network of ponds and strategically placed bunkers.

The Woods is carved out of the hardwood trees and rolling hills in the northeast corner of Camp Dearborn.
